Under Wm. Morris's will the children of Wm. Morris might have elected to take one hundred & seventeen dollars with the negro girl, in lieu of the two hundred & seventeen dollars first bequeathed; nor does it appear from any thing I can collect what disposition was made of the girl; but I inferred, as Mr. Clarke had the control of the property & authorized the payment of the monied legacies, she retained the girl.

I stated an ap* with Wm. Amos Davis on the 18th Augt. 1832, allowing the credits mentioned & calculating interest to that date, which showed a half in favor of Mr. Clarke of $394 and some cents, of which Mr. D. do paid me $150 - & gave me the control of a judgment in his favor, which will be available in a short time to cover the debt.

Having retained my Commission on the Antiguo, and I have herein enclosed the balance $42.50 & left this letter with Mr. elegant to be forwarded to you by earliest convenience, the receipt of which you will please acknowledge.

Yours, etc.
