

Miss Ann. A. Comb, Cobb Neck 27 July 1826

I Received yours of the 28th Inst^o & an opportunity. Seeing I awaited myself of the same to answer yours, the suit against Ford was a confirmed Judgment on the Court of appeals at it last sitting I have ordered ~~the~~ ^{an} ~~Fi. Fa.~~ against their property and in course expect to get the money this March Court

The case against Miss Mattingly is strongly Contested. ~~She~~ ^{she} has employed two lawyers, they say that the lady to whom the note was drawn in favour of had no right to contract in as much as she was a nun and was dead to the world, my lawyers tells me that's nonsense and I think so myself, this March is Trial Court ~~Court~~ - if we can bring the case on, but ^{you} may depend in neither case no time or attention is lost Tell my Sister I will be up with my daughter in April if it pleases God. we are all in this part of the Country much afflicted with bad Colds, being in a hurry
I must conclude Yrs Respectfully Geo W. Hale
